

PALLANT

C H A M B E R S

2021 Mini Pupillage Feedback

“Working at your chambers as a mini-pupil was a great experience as I was able to get extremely useful insight about working as a family law and civil law barrister. I also had the opportunity to interact with experienced barristers and gained invaluable advice for my future legal career. I particularly loved the atmosphere of the chambers as everyone was very welcoming and courteous. I would highly recommend to all aspiring barristers to apply for a mini-pupillage at Pallant chambers.”

“A mini-pupillage at Pallant Chambers gave me a holistic introduction to a career at the bar, from shadowing a Barrister in court to discussing Opinions, the environment and content of the mini-pupillage made it an enjoyable, educational and impactful experience.”

“My mini-pupillage at Pallant Chambers allowed me to have a real insight into areas of law I hadn’t had any exposure to at University. The barristers I shadowed were all so approachable and had time to talk through the tasks I was given as well as giving really helpful advice!”

“My experience at Pallant Chambers has been an extremely insightful and exciting opportunity. I was able to enhance my legal skills in both the family and civil legal sectors. Working on a real civil matter pertaining to family homes enabled me to consolidate and practically apply my knowledge in this area of law. Furthermore, attending multiple hearings allowed me to observe the advocacy skills of practising barristers, which I will be able to apply in my future mooting competitions.”

“Was a very useful and interesting experience that gave me a good insight into being a barrister. It has made me even more certain its the career for me.”

“The barristers are very helpful and explain in detail how the work is done.”

“The team at Pallant Chambers were incredibly kind and welcoming during my mini-pupillage, and I had the chance to ask plenty of questions. This opportunity to see the work of barristers first-hand has given me a better insight into life at the Bar which is important going forward.”

“I would truly recommend undertaking a mini-pupillage at Pallant Chambers to anyone thinking about a career at the Bar. I did not only attend court hearings or shadow barristers, but I also was able to complete paperwork independently, which enabled me to step into the shoes of a barrister. I constantly received constructive feedback and also assurance on every piece of work I completed. The team at Pallant is also very friendly and welcoming; the clerks and the barristers made every effort to allow me to feel at ease, and they were very generous with their time.”