

Thomas Worthen Memorial Student Award

Eligibility & Prize

The Pallant Chambers Thomas Worthen Memorial Student Award gives all undergraduate and postgraduate law students, GDL students and BPTC students in the UK the opportunity to demonstrate their written advocacy skills through a short essay

The entrant who writes the most effective and persuasive argument shall receive £500, and a 3 day mini-pupillage with Pallant Chambers

Essay Question

We invite you to submit an essay of no more than 750 words, providing your response to the following question:

Should the UK adopt a completely unqualified right to freedom of speech?

Submission Process

Essays must be submitted to cmclean@pallantchambers.co.uk no later than 4pm on 31 December 2021. You must include your full name, the title of the course that you are studying, and your e-mail address

The winner will be announced on our website on 21 January 2022

www.PallantChambers.co.uk

Scan the QR code to find out more about Thomas Worthen's story, and how this award came to exist

